

GOOGLE SUITE TO APPLY NEW KNOWLEDGE

KazTEA Webinar # 5
June 4, 2020

COGNITIVE SKILL: APPLY

- ◉ Interview illustrate
- ◉ Build experiment with
- ◉ Demonstrate model
- ◉ Edit identify
- ◉ Prove utilize
- ◉ Calculate build
- ◉ Solve a problem construct

GRADE: 8

Textbook: English Plus (by OUP)

Topic: Our World: Think Globally, Act Locally

Grammar in use: too much, not enough, too many

ACTIVATE P. 13

Task: Find out about your partner's eating habits.
Use tips 1-6 and your ideas:

1. many crisps
2. How much fruit ...?
3. How many sweets ...?
4. too many chocolate bars
5. enough vegetables
6. much coffee

Do you eat many crisps?

Yes, I eat
many

Then tell the class about your partner's eating habits. / Report to the class if your partner's diet is healthy. Explain your decision

GOOGLE DOC

1. Create a Google doc.
2. Name your file
3. Click on 'Tools'. Find Record your voice.
Choose the language: English
4. Record your report.
5. Edit your speech.
- 6a. Give access to your partner.
- 6b. Submit to the Google classroom

GOOGLE DRAW

- ◉ Open 'Car pooling' file
- ◉ Study the map
- ◉ Read the data. Think of the route to the school with your classmates.
- ◉ On the tool bar choose a type of line to draw with. You can change the color of it.
- ◉ Draw a route for you and your partner
- ◉ Explain your route

COMMUNITY SERVICE: CAR POOLING

Give a lift to your classmate. Look at the map. Choose a mate who lives close to you. Draw a route. Explain your choice.

Data: Shymkent. Public transport is too busy in morning hours. Heavy traffic at the avenues Kunayev, Baitursynov

-  - student with a car
-  - student with no car

TIPS FOR TEACHERS

Modify your instructions for online mode:

- ◉ Tell the class → Write and share/submit
- ◉ Match → Drag
- ◉ Write an essay → Name your file